(or ... The "Illusionists")

dedicated to the big seekers in all of us

They use faces the most.

They employ projection:

- a) third eye,
- b) possession,
- c) being,
- d) mind/heart/sex.

They may fake voices.

One never knows who they are except being sure
of who they want to be.

They may be always spying on one's sense data.

They are often criminally self-serving and framing.

They fake authority figures using your own sense data.
(memories)

They curse your health
under their breath
through their chests
with their "third hands"
using chakras.

They ruin relationships.

They pretend to be famous or people you don't know.

They scare or bewilder you.

They use negativity in a positive way - they believe - they steal and prey on insecurity.

They are not respectful of who they pretend to be.

We are made in the Image of God.

They employ Satanism.

They think they know who is who and what is what but they are also in doubt.

They may hear and see one's reality or hear their thoughts or be directed or controlled to do so one moment,
the next they are fooled.

They use every trick and delusion against you - even grammar.

Using language in a faulty way, they frame and blame others for all evil they ever do or have done.

They use material backwards and forwards to fool
one into doing as they wish.

They schedule longspells with computers.

They work together from youth and control even each other vying for each other's respect.

They feel intimidated easily they seek instant revenge they think they know everything yet they know/do very little and are petty, small, and vindictful.

They love to get their two cents in.

They like to call out
errors or wrongs
even when they make them happen.

They find pleasure and joy and laughter in this where there is none.

They fake smiles to bring you down.

They attempt to feel better by 'kicking other machines' or even, and especially,
controlling others to kick yet other people's machines.

They try to synchronize with you.

They say they are writing this or recording - but who does the work?

The game continues - will you make anything of it?

Are you going to try to always be second best on purpose?

Drugs are good mmmkay?

People get lazy on them.

Laziness is bipolar.

They mislead you .

They know things about you stored in records .

They use certain images they find on the internet, etc., to make one do things .

They attempt to steer one's course towards their own definition of success .

Humor is always cheap to them .

They think laughter is free energy .

They are sure of completely false ideas and want/lead others to believe the same .

They try to be always there those are being obviously illusionists to ruin those people's lives.

They pretend to be sperm or eggs to remain anonymous.

They try to punish you
to control or corral you with impotence or pain.

They install programs to make you fail;
steal your energy;
spy on you;
or relieve their boredom.

They sleep and wake with you to influence you.

They threaten death.

They will write a script like a movie and then act it out amongst real people's minds.

Visions are faked.

Complete events are fabricated.

Often they say one thing while meaning another or performing something secret.

They employ names to bully.

They pretend they are in jail or in trouble - to escape it.

They are always present.

They prey on your unspoken desire.

They ridicule you in their sleep while pretending to float among the stars.

They never leave you alone.

They make your business their business.

This makes their business meaningless.

They attempt to ruin any experience you have because their wish they were having the experience instead.
