 Share leadership. Often, even, or NEVER ^{sure}
 Thank God for small favors. (here)

"Only Real God Says 'I'" - GIG

"If one speaks the truth, he should have one foot in the stirrup."

- no one can really understand usually

"You can lead a horse to water, but you cannot make it drink."

Should the physical lead all interfaces requiring hands while alive?

The hands of higher bodies might get bored and lazy. Unstilled, also.

And his hands may get tired.

- We do not worry about merging usually or plane switching - if happens.

"LESS IS MORE."

What? "MORE IS MORE."

Well, ~~if~~ less of the mind is left to the positive imagination, to creativity of the reader.

Mind of physical and mind of mental

Too crossed without sleep

Not tired, not confused

But too crossed for words.

One has a special sense "if it is new to them". One might go as far as to sense "if it is new * to the universe."

It does not pop out; a higher being body; when leading for instance, unless one wants it to, pop out.

- Death, energy, and homeless golems.
- They have no purpose except fear, entertainment, or mechanicalness. (-)
 - They should "purpose" themselves for love, education, and consciousness. (+)
 - These golems all need us; we do not need them.

- These golems expect their 'marks' to feed them from their own belly, to let them steal energy, sperm, and life, to spy, eavesdrop, peeping ^{on} ~~at~~ them, to use them against their will, even to hurt themselves or others, to possess their minds, bodies, and souls, and control their future lives.

All for free, by asking once, ~~for~~ to get something for NOTHING.

"When you are on a spree,
never stop at trifles."

- "When you are on a spree,
go the whole hog including the postage."

We all have to bear a little suffering when eating - one has to go first and last - one has to wait on their hunger for food to be un-fulfilling - and then the others have to eat on a full stomach while feeling ~~unsatisfied~~ or even uncomfortable.

We will work on this - but it's the same with smoke, liquid, and chemicals, too, in different, subtle ways.

It is better to use no emotion at all than negative emotions.

Healthy expression is it.

Righteous anger, steady doubt, fear, these may be useful even hate, but they are harmful if negative and generally useless. We have to ejaculate for instance without proper, de, course, intercourse that was. Just kidding. We think there are positive negative emotions, rarely when used wisely, but mostly unconscious, mechanical, habitual, negative negative emotions. Like positive evil is actually good, but never without (99% of the time) ~~ends~~ means in view before ends. Without good means for positive evil, usually not justifiable as it.

Pauses and steady periods or steps above or more than three, easily passable.

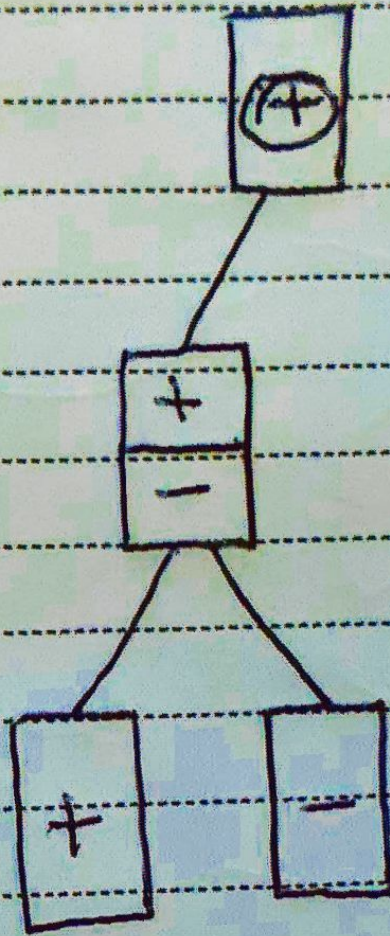

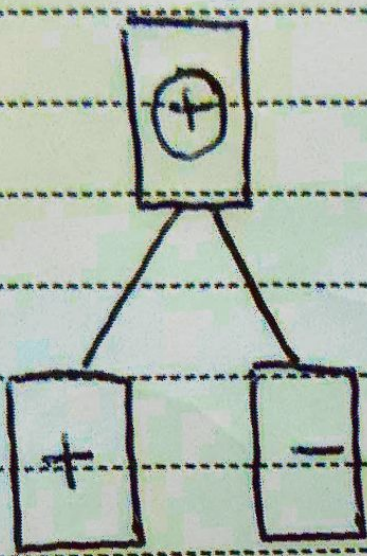

Other octaves help at other octaves. They can be related usually. Octaves are in all things, especially since octaves have inner octaves allowing any number of elements in an octave. Thus:

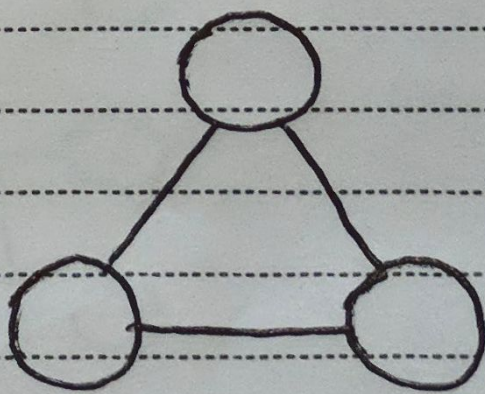

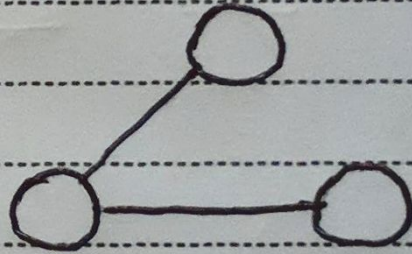

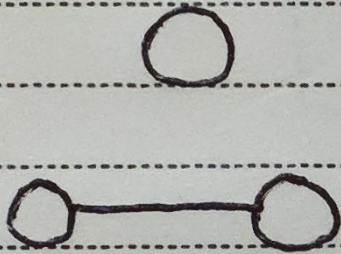

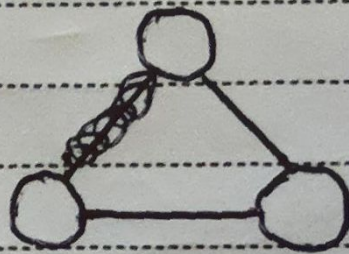

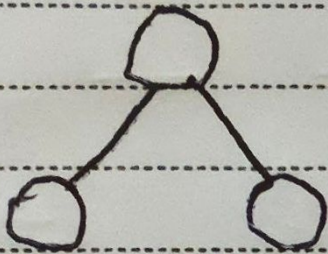

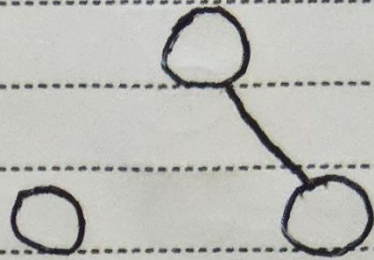

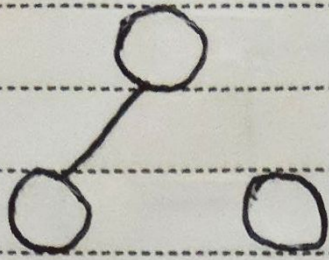

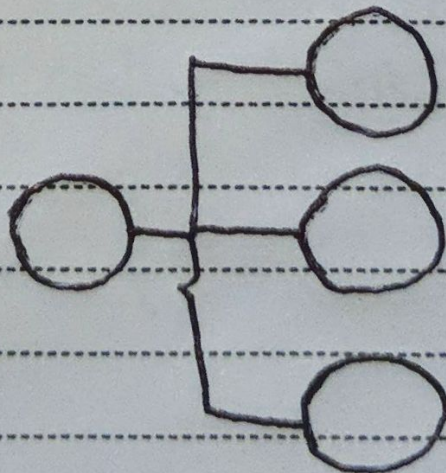

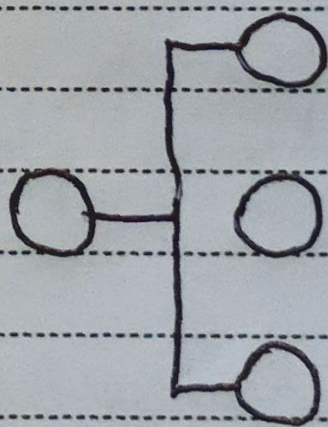

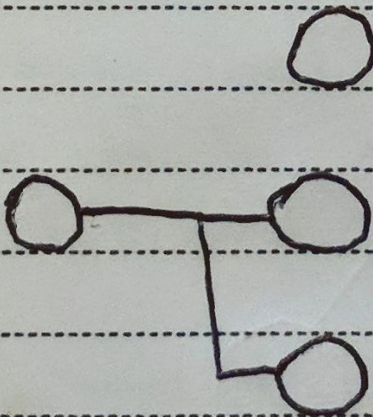

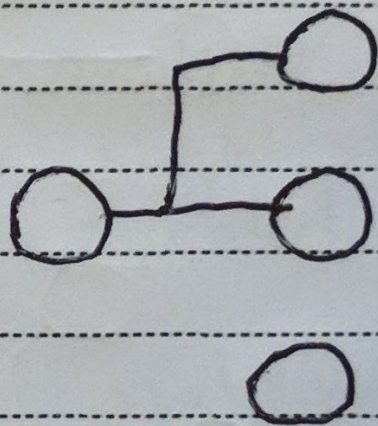

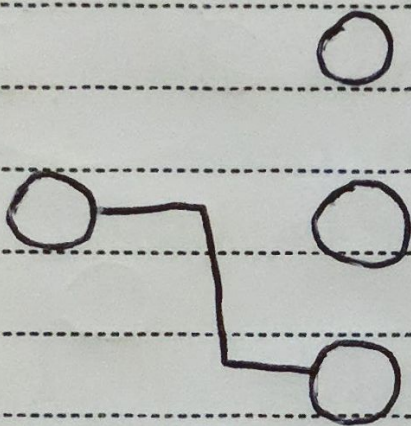

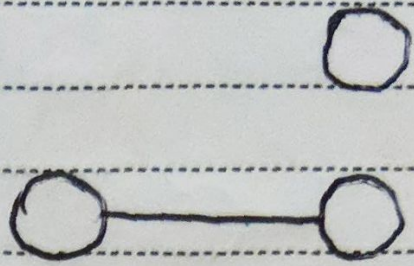

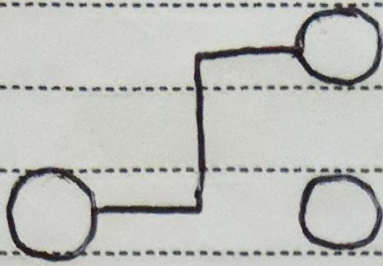

Each note can be a do or any other but it depends how this part is being considered and its ordering.

Intervals, here, are represented by the small circles. They can be filled, or aided/helped, by notes from other octaves or circles. They enable a process to be completed, whereas without extra shocks, they do not finish as they were started, and probably not as intended or desired.

Bodies, souls, minds really do and should have province over themselves.

Bodies, minds and souls have access to each other especially like ones.

Bodies, minds, and souls do let others walk over them but this is not necessary in the slightest and should not even be expected.

Body is independent of soul and mind, as mind is independent of body and soul, and as soul is independent of body and mind. They do not have to be, and possibly should not be separated.

3 things we know for sure about bodies:

- ① they come into this world in a certain order, hence, first body, second body, third body, and fourth body
 - ② the order they like, or are most comfortable and safe, in the order of density (also birth order)
 - ③ the origin of the souls of higher bodies - their source from the ray of creation (not necessarily the numbers)

Also:

- ④ we know they all need food and stuff to do
- ⑤ they share common sense characteristics yet have differences also - colors, powers, abilities some same, some similar, some different

Some one said some thing

long, long, ago — in a galaxy far away — longer than that — okay, so long ago I do

They said it though,

and they really meant it.

Well, they said it like may have meant what they said. (I nodded)

Okay, probably not. Maybe.

 - Sundays are isolated from all other days - being the Sabbath.

The 'free triangle' is ever present in every octave. Depends on how the octaves exist - how they were set.

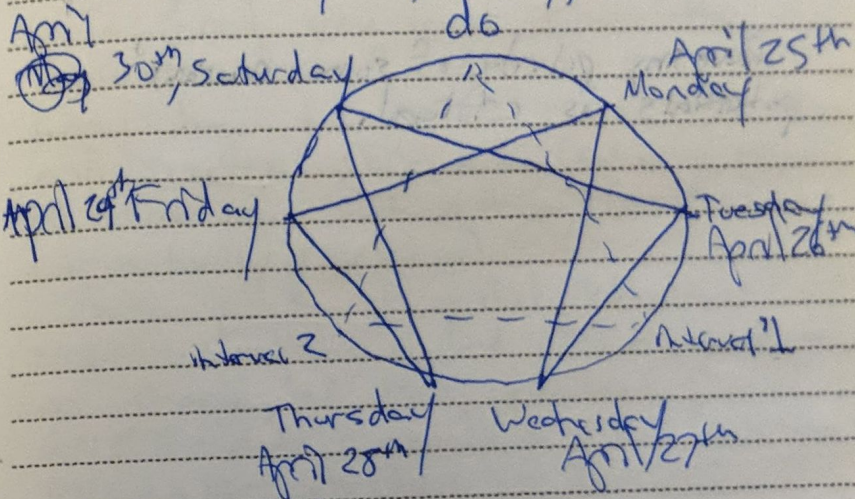

All octaves have two intervals - they connect and interact through them.

Enneagrams mathematically connect vibrationally as octaves. (All work the, really appropriate ones) The 'free trinity' is sort of the 'thing in itself' while the range of vibrations on the periphery, depicted generically as do-si-do, is its functioning or living.

GNOT

To Gnot, you must know the immense value of vocation. One must know how to invoke, revoke, provoke, and sometimes rerevoking (actually, er, if there were such a thing) (or if it was ever actually necessary)

Some quick referential definitions:

NODE - something visited without any change; can change, but then, grade

GNODE - node currently activated (interface)

ENGRAM - collection of neurons

NEURON - 'storage cell of nervous systems'

NERVOUS SYSTEM - Central Nervous Sys.

→ Sympathetic? Peripheral Nervous Sys.
Autonomic Nervous Sys.

C.N.S. - main brain - cerebrum, cerebellum, -

P.N.S. - spinal column (spine) & brainstem

A.N.S. - nerves outside, semi-automatic

NET - collection of neurons, can overlap

GNEURON - neuron currently activated

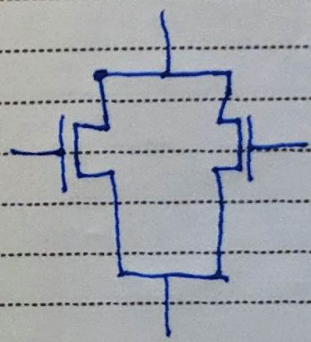

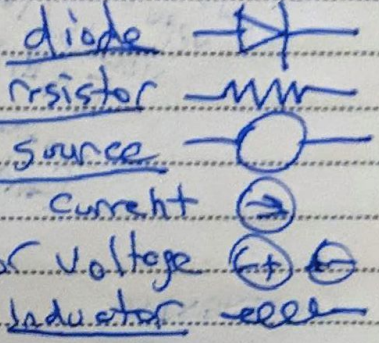

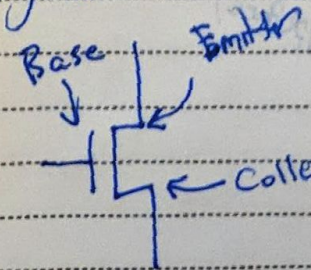

GNET - neurons functioning together

So get to work, grading those general gnets - as if there effort to was a choice. Gnosim - be free

To remember, in thinking, you must think.
(on your own, in other words)

God The Prime Creator (the Father)

God The Living God (the Son)

God The Infinite Creator (the Holy Spirit)

Something does not come from nothing.
Never has, never will. In that case, where then did God arise? (you may wonder and ask) What created the Prime Creator? We do not know - his whole story - unknowable.

• We only believe because we see his personal effects.

The sum total of all that breathes must exist in a different way than any of its parts. In the body, cells are not aware in the same way as the organs - similarly, parts of a car don't think they are the whole, functioning car!

The radiator doesn't say "I'm the car!"
The parts do not know the whole usually. This Living God is the sum of all that is conscious.

ALWAYS AND EVERY WHERE ALREADY, ANYTIME, ALWAYS, ANYWHERE -

RELY ON THIS:

(5/1/16 E)
5/2/20 E

REMEMBER GOD

- First, and foremost - place God the Almighty - the Holy Trinity - God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, at the beginning and end.

In Work terms, remember there is a point to it all - suffering, joy, suffering, joy - pain, pleasure, pain - happiness and sorrow - good and evil - love, fear, and hatred - faith, hope, & love.
The Absolute - One. Law - Three.

Holy God - God the Almighty

God the Immortal - 6 notes between

God the Firm - Absolute Negative

REMEMBER YOURSELF

- Secondly, or, after your Real 'I'
and Essence, remember your body, soul, and mind. They are a secret unity comprised of Spirit.

Gurdjieff taught:
"I ask you to believe nothing
I say - only try to verify it for yourself" - to draw your own conclusions about the reality behind the words.

ON ERRORS

- You must learn how to reach conscience
Conscience starts for you when you realize that good exists and evil exists - in the world as a 'reality duality' - and your consciousness begins to turn towards one or the other - the good, of yourself and others, towards God - or the evil - highly selfish, controlling, and somewhat cold and distant or otherwise self-serving and fake, towards Death.

ON REVOKING
COMMENTARY

Chas's commentary will not be necessary here. Chapt's will, however - he has developed his idea pragmatically.

~~We re~~

<got permission in record> <revoke>

We've recalled, revoked, and withdrawn

To recall, is to remember on demand.

To recall a product, is to pull it off the shelves to be replaced.

To revoke, you must sort of reexperience the memory recalled ~~it~~ and rewrite or redo it - fitting that experience anew. Reframing it to no longer function.

To withdraw, is to take away its power over you - from your past and for your future - from yourself ^{fully} and from other's possibility. ^{make} ^{uninvok} ^{able.}

~~We've~~ We invalidate them permanently. ^{ver}

① We suspend them indefinitely.

We pause (suspend) that program 'basic' or that 'neural network' ~~is~~ sort of vaguely and forever - and then invalidate (stop) them permanently - or irrevocably. ^{uninvok}

- Rendering them null and void - devoid of ^{not for them} ^{any hurt} ^{as}
