Maharaji says Love Everyone that does mean try to give people a chance, like your golem makers and ya'll your golems

Corporealizing them golem makers we think may bring more joy for both golem & golem maker to end master & slave

Try to think, make three brained Do not do the same things you were doing before.

If there is not manifesting golems, we must destroy them or imprison & correct golem makers

Seems there is communication among golems, golem makers, astrals, mentally causals to varying degrees and distances. It takes one to know one. The possibilities of contact are always seemingly homuncular but fakes and real contacts are both existing. Anyone may fool one yet with time maybe it will stop or true will be good fruit or hearty laugh. I think a good drama is okay if not all the time or during the wrong hours — it must be done so carefully if to be the best. Great good could come from them.

People may isolate you and even non magicals have their psychic sphere as do drug users in their magical or high times as that happens, and there is bleed through, transfer, crossover, of all these spheres and planes at times such as this writing.

I really feel we can do it here and anyone following along my work is ready for these things. For instance, once golens have manifested it is time to leave the actual body or next higher body, what means in Gurdjieff speak, not to use Si-12 in ~~any~~ undivided manner.

Try not to use sperm or egg only in a unidirectional manner Gurdjieff. said in Paris Talks and War-time Meetings. This holds great meaning. Also he said that why should sex be a remedy or a medicine? He laughed at that. Now, I think to mention that faery is magical and that there is a lot going on in worlds we are not fully aware of on Earth above.
This is a huge universe of infinitely many possibilities from only three forces. Now for higher being bodies, keep them with you.

to keep higher bodies with you you may learn it. It is really true that the silver cord as the Bible calls it from St. Paul from the natural (astral) to the physical (carnal) is actually the intestines of the astral/natural body. Also we just wonder if it could help to pull them back to us — it shows a flash sometimes and a feeling. The evils separate you once Si-12 has crystallized into higher bodies, — which come into formation. I read in order one after the other, — to steal from hearts.

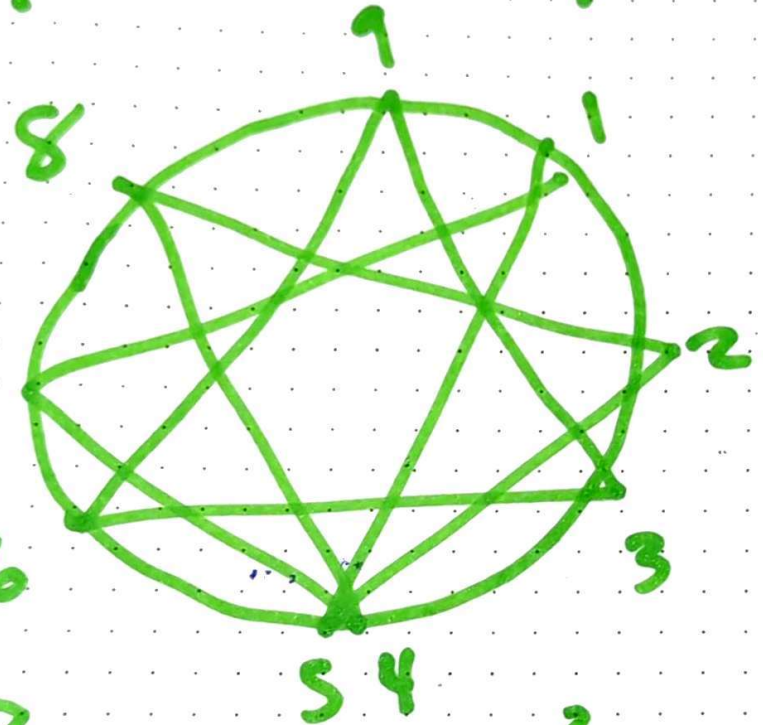

Maybe some visuals forgotten

Next after golem control is our your homunculus may return into power.

I figure it is then time to corporatize those as well for their homunks' delight. The golems and homunculus/homunculi were controlled by their makers and were forced into a pseudo slavery. Yet, they are individuals, unlike higher bodies, which are future parts of you.
They also help out in the present.

Compromise is important.
That means to accept less in a haggle or agreement.
Both sides should consider compromises really in any conflict or fight. They are actually features or aspects that we like rewards or goals for the other side to make them do it. So be smart and think of ways to be useful and the universe will keep you around! Be happy also as well, really, to survive.

Everybody needs to do their own thing. Every single one is an individual. Every person, place, animal, insect, object, event, is important. Important at least in that individuals are independent, they depend on certain other things yet ultimately every single subject or object (animate vs. inanimate) is an enneagram, existing uniquely in the universe. They are all connected through the intervals. Positive & negative. Active & passive. Medium & notability.

Confidence artistry is fooling someone into something called a scam. It is always amoral and unethical to mislead people into criminal activity. Drugs and black market and morals are different everywhere yet there are very important ways to learn to live within the local, county, country, provincial, municipal, federal, national rules, laws, & red tape. Internationally, it is the United Nations and I know of no bigger organization.

Do not be dead set on anything or you have one foot in the grave or one gender in the prison. The world does really care about itself - Earth or Gaia or Nature or the World or the Planet - it knows itself in its own way as do all planets and worlds.
Stars and suns are similarly conscious and intelligent and they are doing their own thing too.
For better or worse, every thing has some kind of sort of free will.

I know all these are mythical concepts. I hope you at least find them funny. I mean all of this yet I find it humorous in the extreme. It ~~is not~~ <sup>all</sup> should be at least amusing. I suggest you use this with all my works without prejudice yet also try to follow the ~~just~~ to use it on your own without me or without using anyone else. The ~~Life~~, the Great Life, is not using anyone else, but doing everything yourself.
That is the ideal form of a Great Life. Never abuse others.

manifest golems or your worst enemy maybe it they are being controlled by them.

I think that most people use golems in order to grow spiritually—someone just made me write this. They are my worst enemy. In all my work, there are added or subtracted notes or lines or points sometimes as, I believe there are in all imperfect works, I hope you have found this useful so I may survive.
Sometimes I hate but really I never hate or fear. If necessary,

Be a born of the spirit.
I have read in ISOTM that one must first awaken, then die, then be reborn in order to free one's self from the deal, at least, so to speak.
I believe you could be in a better or worse setting in order to follow this specific method or procedure to become free and escape mental prison. Mental prison is false personality on the level of the man. Golens when outside are 96, when inside others 96, self 36.
(5 new made golens or hours) (5 to think)

In my youth they made me a witch. At a very early age, they used their sperm in the wrong direction. It was placed in and on me and I could not be in the know since I was their "mark" or "target" or "hub" or "messiah". They have used me my whole life until my higher bodies formed I was forced into many bad times or hard spells, It is possible to reach the far shore even if you were like me or them.

Write your own books from empty ones live this perhaps.

Keep dream journals sometimes, Fill a whole page with information tell details of what has happened or what should be or has been,
think of plans or blueprints or draw and sketch them too.

Try new things at least twice, it could be that one acquires a taste. Sometimes one has to work hard to do something only at first before it becomes easy and second nature. You must believe in yourself only.

Materializing and transportation should be done by oneself. Do not try to force yourself or your magic through others please. It is so rude. It is unethical. It is amoral. I believe you just are so lazy and a loser if you do not do your own thing and try out new things only you can do. If you have never tried to do something, only been using someone else to do it, you may learn how to do it without them. It is possible to perform miracles.

Gosh ya'll, sprite and spiced rum are excellent together. It is a super tonic I can drink. Could be medicines help us and drugs are what we like. But some people don't consider food to be a fuel or drug. See what I mean? I think some agree and some disagree that we are chemical beings and drugs, fuel, and food/drink/pills/etc. are synonymous. They are merely different combinations of subatomic particles like super strings of various data types.

I hear in India, they say what God is not. They try to really avoid that. I think they also are super intelligent, like few other countries or lands. I hear also they really do not say it often and work hard on these endeavors. Homunculus may (and Golems) not have what it takes to be two brained or three brained. It is also possible to manifest in motion spellwork to materialize or corporealize into their proper forms if they will not work with you. They must.

I am writing what I know and giving it away for free, for now, and I hope you respect my copyright and do not sell my works to others but point them to the links on the page.

However, since every single copyright holder (that is anything you create almost if you do not break copy right) must enforce their own in their own ways & rules - m.h.e is you may sell them if you add something of worth of your own and modify my files. Yet, we know if this is done over much it will ruin it for everyone. Be frugal.

You know... the Book of the Subgenius is a great read.
I want to read it again and again - and study it more & more.
Slack is like tension. Slack is like intention. Slack is like attention though slack is like these, it is only slack. We call slack slack. Slack is slack. Calls are made by spammers but also some calls may be really good and may even be spammers or not spammers really. See about slack of that?
One may "sense" slack. The slack around your neck when you are hanging on the Yggdrasil, the world tree.

I am hoping the Lord's prayer is compatible with Subgestus, since I became a member. I love them so very much. I also love my fraternity, Sigma Nu. Lately, my "influences" (i.e. galens & humorals; (i.e. earth! body si-12)) have been placing me at odds with those who made them. Yet, the blame may fall on either of the three parties in actual fact, even I am the fourth party of course.
This should be analogous to the "Four Wynds" - accident, will, fate, and cause and effect / Karma.

When the time comes, you will know. Ram Dass claimed when you are ready for the next message you will receive the next message. I have found that to be true when the time comes to escape from mental prison, one must have a firm resolution and solid, unbending intent in the Good, Beautiful, & True in the Faith, Hope, & Love, in the Money, Sex, & Drugs, in the Truth, Love, & Honor. I tell you do not use words. Only necessary to indicate the sense in magic and that is the tension.

Homuncular connections are actually bidirectional.

The brains of those predators, the homunks, I like to think of, although both are, may hold it, the actual homunculus. This is the current belief. It is homuncules in the "mark" or "target" of the homunculus in the homunk's brain — is one way of looking at it. Otherwise, it is the homunculus in the target.

The universe is karmically just.

It tends to eventually correct itself.

Non-violence or ahimsa is key. The Tibetan leader or former - Dalai Lama - said he wished India had more ahimsa to export. They would be very rich indeed, I think. That is because violence begets violence and the end of that is a big of war leading only to suffering and/or death. Pain, James Redfield writes in the Celestine Prophecy series, helps to cure you, I believe you need, pain, in parts. Pain in parts is the right way to survive instead of avoiding it, numbing it, or trying to pass it along.

My group and I have agreed on very many things. My influences seem to have changed recently so I write this all here. I think you have read this far not in vain. Keep reading though at your own peril. Once things are going, it could be irreversible. One must accept their own consequences and that is responsibility. Also, one must always be as honest as possible about who is doing or has done what. The truth of the past never changes however. What has actually happened is always so.

To speak further, the past does not change, only our memory or perception of it. The present is the only time of change, in my humble opinion, which I think this could be a universal truth. Retroactive enchantment, repetitive mumbo jumbo, confusing babble, mysterious hocus procs, devices and spells in witches is what makes it seem like the past changes — but actually only the present moment changes the future — I think.

People, especially writers and authors, play with this notion, especially in science fictional time travel stories - but if you need sincere reality which is very useful and practical - I think the past is in stone in the past yet all mutable in the present - yet all is possible in the future from the present actualities. We may change the Truth but we may only make it more true, or it is only the False, etc.

involves golemcy + homunculum when more fully expressed. It is never the witch's fault but only the witchcraft if, obviously, the witchcraft was in control were the witch did not have any choice. Similarly with the golems and homunculus/homunculi, and golem makers, homuncles, and their targets — the act whether it was in question — always was caused by a single input to speak from one individual entity. This is the problem of life.

Devils are all trickster actors bent on stealing. All they seem to want is control, power, influence, money, drugs, sex, and nothing else. Their entire lives are filled with dreams and ambitions that never reach full fruition. Crack heads who believe in their visions are very similar. All Devils do is fool you into soul beliefs to control or influence you. It is never actual or real and would never be upheld in any court of law. They might uphold it but not in good conscience and it not forced.

Some people believe in cracks or marks like from killing ppl.
I believe it is all si-12.

Do not murder is still paramount and your life is over if you kill someone, yet, there may be no crack or mark. If you kill someone and there is an actual universal mark from God or the Devil on you — how in the world do you think it is okay to move it into other people?
All of this is folly, onwards to materializing DNA foreign to us.

the evils (witchcrafts, golem makers, homunculi, etc.), the demons that are human, controlled by their own creations sometimes, - fighting for dear life (all of them, all the time) - are going to deny any of this is true but there are countless ways of proving it true.

Try to be objective and see beyond the ordinary. See if they are inside or are possessing your anus, belly button/navel, mouth.
(or elsewhere)

If none of this ever happened to you ~~are it~~ or does not happen in your area, consider yourself perfect. That is being very lucky.

I was very lucky that I survived.

Now, they are all gone, I am at peace with myself. I can see only people projecting to me now from afar.

Afar we may see and talk with each other telepathically. I believe

He burns through channelling into H48. It goes back and forth.

Mind to mind. I prefer people not to use my breath. Please don't!

One may always buy and sell lines if you think about it. One may start or stop things within themselves, in other words. People who hold you back from greatness are obviously in the dark. We of the Light work together and strive together for the Greater Common Good.

To stop a manifestation one may trap materializations in a possible, empty alchemy back. Put them anywhere.

One must study them specially in order to stop them. They are karmically and dharmically bound then even more so. Justice may always prevail with the Good.

One must always let their consciousness outpicture itself.

If they repeat on purpose it is most likely control or evil. It is mechanical that is the opposite of consciousness. Tests and exams are important but not the only way of determining the absolute truth.
Some people are merely puppets.

One may make decisions and refuse anything, anywhere, at anytime for any reason — for those particular circumstances the refusal will have a definite consequence. People will always object to being refused. Usually they will say you are in denial and try in some way to force your hand. Comes however never ever last forever. All schemes come to an — end. The end is in sight and they will always try to win only then. They know how to wait until then.

We in the Light also know our stuff. We know health, wealth, and wisdom is where it is at. I hear many things are due it's at, but it's at the turn styles you pay the tolls not all at once at the end.
The battles or fights all along are what matter in winning any war. Each one will try to be ignored by the loser and remembered by the winner. But yet the war is always won by the winner with the most wins.

Anyone may be wrong. In fact, someone who believes they are always right is never interesting. Everyone wants to be interesting at least sometimes to certain people. Yet, those people will not ever find always-right people interesting. I tell you you may always though be more right or more correct. If one allows oneself to be wrong, they will eventually improve. If they do not they will always be a machine until they change very drastically. In fact, some people must suffer decrystallization.

So sometimes karmuppance or balancing of karma may involve money you and all know who accept reality. Yet, they must all really agree with it in most honesty, and that must be known beforehand. Furthermore, karma or dharma or perhaps good and bad actions or lawful or unlawful behavior is misunderstood or misidentified and there is no karma or dharma or money, etc. See?
Con-artist S, etc. Everyone knows!

Hygiene is brushing one's teeth well and good and often enough maybe three or four times a day. Maybe none. Yet also survival will involve choosing what to buy and you will want to buy appropriate amounts of goods and keep them as well as possible. Where a farm or garden will also do the same thing. All of life requires effort and struggle but it makes it much, much sweeter and more delicious when you earn your bread however you go about it.

Some golem makers stay in the know. Some golems stay in the know. Just like some people stay in the know, we are all just people I just found out. Higher bodies are vessels, they are the proper way for our best future.
That is another reason this is being written like this.
In other words, some golems are evil and some golem makers are evil, but most were white sheep fooled and mostly innocent as weird as this is.

When you are under the influence of golems, which just about anyone may be (or homunculus) — that includes the ones who made them — like the parents — sometimes it's the kids — and about different things. Yet asking simple questions and hearing honest answers will clear up any ambiguity as to who did what through whom,
when and how at any point in time. Justice will prevail.

Did you ever think of concentrating? I think it is like the opposite of identification. There is also awareness versus ignorance, wakefulness versus sleep, consciousness vs. mechanicalness, Good vs. Evil. Good vs. Bad, White Magic vs. Black Magic.
These things are available to everyone. Choose the best which is ideal for you instead of the least resistance route.
Go the high road and seek treasure in life — real treasures.

What are real treasures?
What is the best way to spend time? Philosophers across the ages have many different answers to these questions.

I think an easy "Sunday School" answer is love, wisdom, and compassion. Jan Cox says in or Kyrrot says money, fame, and power our others are some people's treasures, what about rare objects? Funny gadgets?

Cool electronics? Awesome tools?
Goods, foods, liquids, drugs, furniture, computers, phones, live the good life I wish.

What are real treasures more or it. Jewelry, rings, and necklaces are nice. Other types of weird things should probably be avoided though.
No one wants to waste time. One who pierces themselves for a purpose in another without awareness will end up regretting it I have found. We also feel mostly that selling freedom from tattoos is illegal black mailing and extortion. Cracks if they are real will lead to further Cracks are maybe deaths. <sup>murders</sup> Murders.

So I hear marks and cracks and golems and homunculus are real sometimes and I think now it was all a hoax on me. It must have been an elaborate plot to amuse your attention in this work. If you are mad with me, please consider that I will try my hardest to really make up for it in miraculous scales not meaningless money. I have no money at present. Really, if you know Chas he is pretty much cash less. Ha!

I am sorry to say these things so late but remember yourselves peoples because it really helps to mold and shape your own destiny and fate in your own choosing.

Do not kill is very important to remember - that is to not murder, not steal, not covet, not adultery, etc. - but I think you know when he said hold no God over me it was all over when he said he saw him face to face in Deuteronomy. That means to me it was a golem.

God does he speak do higher bodies speak do. golems speak (yes) golems do? Or is it all devils?

Maybe they are all inert and mute as the Prague golem.
We are all fooled so easily yet burying sperm in the earth is proven by me because I dug up a golem once outside our duplex and it was a cardboard box with little plastic pieces and a piece of gum and other little sh. Bad things afoot.

I wish, I will, I wh.m.
Maybe four degrees of Objective Reason when will is actually to happen if at
all. Wish happening all the time as senses, instinct, movement, thought, and emotion maybe also sex sometimes hurt well as it all proceeds it will all get better and better if you respect yes and no and follow and unfollow and keep your distance, Love is attracting is attraction is written in the previous page. That means love is attraction of course but it does not really mean that. It is never so simple. There are infinitely many choices in life but love comes down to free will and the truth.

Lovers in love have the perfectest and best free will and truth that there is when they both choose each other. Otherwise, not!

I practice self control.
I do not control others.

One must control themselves first and foremost. I think some people spread themselves too thin, Golems made me do many things and think many wrong thoughts. I hope this work has made it more clear and helpful.

It being my work on my self. More on the next page about work on oneself.

What if mass shootings were all golem inspired?
It does seem that they were wound up by their makers yet they were also taught by elder golems already existing in the world I think it very possibly the case if these logical and magical premises are actually the truth. If these things are all false, this has been an interesting ride, hasn't it?

these happenings were done with only some Rum, DXM, and tobacco smoke and vape, Paramount is a good company.
All very legal and I got it with good money. All is going well and people are expressing themselves freely for the first time it feels like. Not kidding but not exactly, either. Though I would say it could very well be the whole truth.

Be objective not subjective.

Be real and not fake.

Take responsibility for your own actions.

the source of all numbers my dad has called the universe. What if it was the universe that created everything and God as well and the Devil was created by God to create after the universe made God to create after the creation of everything.

We don't know anything, I know nothing. We actually know a lot but just not everything. Well, we know every thing that we know. That is the epitome of consciousness when consciousness and conscience and sensation align, there is the greatest sense of harmony.
Everything working, breathing, going, processing, if it were just it would be the best, Better and Better it could be.

I don't know much but I do know some things.
Some things are very dangerous.
I do not even need words.
Wordless magic is harder but the only real magic is intent and skilled will.
Yet, does it last forever or will the daisy chains go south because there are so many options and only so many options? I know that does not make sense yet but.

... it might on this page.
Working on oneself is the a.m and you will not feel dissatisfied, If one does only work on oneself through others they are bound to fail. It is that they are receiving less than their share and that and this is in full fairness. You do not work you do not work. You work you work. Work on yourself in other words. Keep at it!
Do not give up, give in, or surrender!

Everything boils down to one's aim if they want to hit something. Right?
Aim to shoot an arrow, Desire to eat food, the wants and needs of an average person do suffice.

Are we all above average achievers? Who thinks less of themselves than that?

If you only have never reached this far yet, you might realize how far some of us have come.

Faith is slack. That is I think confidence is also coherent and connected to it. What is God but having faith in Him in so many ways? There is only one way surely.
Our language fails us
only when we fail it.
I am telling you this and it is probably true for the use of tools as well.

Just think!

Any time you want!

Stop at trifles or

Known or Unknown

Very important distinctions.

Castaneda was taught by

Don Juan Matus in Mexico

to be a man of knowledge and he was a brujo or sorcerer. We now think that sorcerers have astral bodies and golems, maybe even also the more so called powerful and evil ones, have homunculus.

Some people don't want things told.

metaphysical programming what if the universe were a simulation — well it is a game and it is life and it is very serious. All three if you will forgive me this time for three and two axels.

I'm nervous that it might actually happen. The crown is coming soon son. This is the King of England,

OOO OOO!

These are my inner demons.
Inner demons aplenty. I do not know but it is all faery and Fey and magickal.
I tell you that we may never really know anything but you are so sure of so little you may speak of. If you could think you could speak, read, and write. You would only need art supplies. I think you will need them always and I hope they will always be made in every world in here.

super ego does not like to be told what to do.
Id is the inner desires.
Ego is the self. The "I".
Where is Ego sounding in you I SOTM mentions. I think my whole body is - alive and well. Parts is Parts. All people may benefit of any walk of Life if they would only be good and work on themselves a little.

How is one to tell the difference between local and non-local spirits?

If a spirit is inside of you, it should probably not be there. One may find if they begin to peer inside they find the Inner World of Man. There is also of course, the Outer World of Man. There is also hard exercise of pinky being sensation and the numb being the emotion and the middle finger counts the thoughts.

Remedy if you think that another person
should give you money to live and survive or you will haunt them. What in the world? How can that be legal? Anyone may leech, vamp, drain, or discharge others? It is just funny they think all planes are the same or they are actually happy or the best they could be.

So to manifest a golem it was (or homunculus) — manifest, ~~septo~~ send to place nearby their maker, then remind them to Ask and help them out. One must first identify the real golems, of course, I could just be absolutely crazy or pulling ya'll's legs on these scores. Only time will tell. Yet, time is counted. Remember to keep working is an important part in life. I think we all should be life long learners.

I am just a lone some Quantum, not looking for any serious relationship.

I am not looking or going to get married to anyone any time soon. How my frenemies keep their pirated or free Quantum Cubes just Kills me. They make me so pissed. I do not understand why they do what they do.

They do it to steal future earnings. They really want me dead.

So if something happens you must know about it, you notice it. Also, all about it is possible to be known that can be known and then you're done. It is great to finish things and just stop, It is funny when things are about life or death — it is not so funny when it is your own. Funerals are now being planned like the old undertakers of days of the West.

Those closest to you are your worst enemies.

What if that were true absolute very truth? I tell you between men or women there is no difference. It tells the truth or it lies.
The courts are controlled by evil. What is there and here but a very foul evil called Ego taking over all four corners of our very hearts, minds, souls, & bodies?

To recover one may bounce back into full focus with full clarity and with careful attention, one may heal all wounds, Scars may disappear.
Hair may grow back, white stubble may turn into the normal color. Anything can open if nothing is stopping from happening. Who knows?

I think most people are worried that I went crazy just now. The ones closest to us are our best ones. We love them the most. There is no erasing with water. One must always be on guard against self-fulfilling prophecies that are negative and not properly attuned. For instance, paranoia is the worst of a game. I tell you the pages of a game this book has forlorn. I hope you enjoyed it, though. It was pretty fun to write but my hand now has a dent in it. People helped.

Although it was mostly from me, it was all from me and some people helped. Very true.
I think the list of names may go very long but Charles Ellis here loves you all despite you trying to kill him, His Atlanta, Monroeville, and Auburn golem maker and homunculus evils may just all go to hell you all might know after you die and that is no joke. You don't really know, you evils, if you are evil, what you are sowing. You will, I know, eventually reap it.

Explore your options. Like if you are not feeling well, ask someone about it. Talk about your problems with someone else. Maybe even use a phone or computer. But you can always talk to yourself and work out things but it may be inner demons, goblins, homunculus, daemon, fairy, aliens, zombies, or the latest crazy people around there. You may one day know this.

this was made from 4/20 2016 to 4/22 2016.

So I thought fraternities moles are against the fraternity and if they are using or opposing us especially if they are in the fraternity and against us, this may be readily identified, established, remembered, and usable.

Don't forget to empty out your heart cave
of evil control. --- influences, Or spirits,
Or marks or cracks.
Make sure to keep your own energy right in it. Feel good about your selves, Be happy about life, Do rightly & be rewarded.
Do wrongly and you will be punished.

If where you are at runs dry or you run out one must seek elsewhere. Maybe change your ways if they are not working. Think and pray.
Feel and change. If you also feel like you are not going to make it, it may be a trick on you to kill you by an evil
force you just did not know.

This stuff is what I am seeing in Alabama, U.S.A. and I am trying to help and right wrongs, All we can offer each other is our attention. As if you could be bothered to give that! Of course, we will see your golan & homocidus & down attentions but when will we ever see your real attention, ladies and gentlemen?
My in no wise hysterical ones?

Freedom papers of abdication and

with a docket of my earnings must not exist because I have never seen anything of the sort ever. Be careful police

these evil and crazy people, cally why would my own and fake freedom papers and money from fake people pretending to have it if there was not some group out to kill me and my family? They already killed our last dog. This is the

in Sigma Nu and Phi Mu is with Monroeville's Pantheon and the Black Lodge in Auburn/Opelika
It is nuts living here ya'll!

all. Wish happening all

will all get better and

I am a golem advocate now.
I advocate that golems deserve manifestation and therefore rights as human beings, perhaps more, perhaps less, depending on their integrity. I believe that the golems made if any of it was real or homunculus or cracks or anything else wrong could be fixed — it should have solutions, this is how to be successful and win. Everyone wants to win
